Looking for a mountain home that feels like a cabin but has some updates? This lovely cabin, located on the desirable Loop Dr in Camp Nelson, was built in 1940 but has been updated to keep its character and charm while adding the comforts you appreciate in the mountains. You enter into the large living room with an adjacent dining room/office/bedroom area separated from the living area by glass French doors. On the other side is a wet bar followed by a huge kitchen with recent stainless steel appliances (including double ovens), lots of storage, and an adjacent laundry room and a half bath. Upstairs are three bedrooms and a full bath. Step outside to a recent deck on two sides and plenty of parking for friends and family. Recent flooring, paint, decking, and roof mean the hard work has been done for you and central heat in the main living areas and an oversized garage add convenience. Don't miss out on this one -- call today for your private tour!
