Discover your dream mountain cabin nestled on a quiet cul-de-sac between Camp Nelson proper and the Tule River! This stunning three-story mountain home offers four bedrooms and three baths plus a bonus room once used as a songwriter's recording studio. The kitchen has been updated with custom cabinets, granite slab countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a butler's pantry with tons of storage and counterspace. Two of the baths features granite countertops as well as custom slate tub or shower and floors. A private master suite on the upper floor has a balcony overlooking the property. A sunroom area off the great room offers wonderful mountain views and a screen porch off the bonus room provides outdoor living out of the elements. Add in a garage with workshop area, lots of deck space, a relatively flat lot with Giant Sequoias and this property is one of a kind! Did I mention the sauna and hot tub on one of the decks? This mountain home is an entertainer's dream and could make a fabulous vacation rental. Don't miss out on this wall – call today for your private tour!
