Called the "Boulder House," this cabin was built around a boulder that is now inside the cabin!

Looking for a one-of-a-kind cabin? This Sequoia Crest cabin is nicknamed the "Boulder House" because it is built around a granite boulder which is still inside the cabin! Add in views of Giant Sequoias in all directions, amazing sunsets, views of the Central Valley lights at night, and a very private setting and you've found what you are looking for! This custom cabin has two master suites, an open floor plan, a propane stove and an electric stove for ambiance & heat, new heat pump mini splits for additional heat & a/c, and lots of custom touches. The boulder exposed in the downstairs master suite creates a fantastic soaking tub area nicknamed "The Grotto." Did I mention it's furnished and an established vacation rental and comes with the adjacent lot? Don't miss out- call today!
