private forest!*

Do you want to build a vacation cabin or permanent home in the middle of your own private piece of a forest? Upper Alpine may be just what you are looking for! It is a small community of 5 acre lots located just above the quaint village of Alpine Village in the Giant Sequoia National Monument. This property has two possible building sites: One around the NW corner of the property and another with a roughed in driveway and potential view in a more private area around the NE corner. Call today for more information or to see this unique area of the mountain!
